Revenue (R) Department

NOTIFICATION

No. G. O. P. 365/77/Rev. Dated, Trivandrum, 8th March 1977.

S. R. O. No. 218/77.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 29 of the Kanam Tenancy Abolition Act, 1976 (16 of 1976) the Government of Kerala hereby make the following rules, namely:—

RULES UNDER THE KANAM TENANCY ABOLITION ACT, 1967

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Kanam Tenancy Abolition Rules, 1977.

(2) They shall extend to the whole of the Cochin area of the State of Kerala.

(3) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Gazette.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) "Act" means the Kanam Tenancy Abolition Act, 1976 (16 of 1976);

33/783/MC.

(b) "Form" means a form appended to these rules;

(c) "Section" means a section of the Act.

3. Application for declaring an institution as a religious or charitable one of a public nature and the procedure thereon.—(1) Any institution desiring to get the decision of the Government that it is a religious or charitable institution of a public nature under sub-section (3) of section 4 may apply to the Government through the Collector of the District.

Note.—For the purpose of this sub-rule, the Collector of the District shall be—

(i) in a case where the institution or its main office or temple is situated outside the area to which the Act extends, the Collector of the District nearest to such institution or its main office or temple and to which the Act extends; and

(ii) in other cases the Collector of the District in which the institution or its main office or temple is situated.

(2) An application under sub-rule (1) shall be preferred by the person competent to act on behalf of the institution and shall specify—

(i) the name and address of the institution;

(ii) the amount of jenmikaram that was annually received by such institution prior to the appointed day;

(iii) the Taluks from which it was due;

(iv) the perpidi numbers;

(v) the survey and sub-division number and extent of the holding in respect of which jenmikaram was due;

(vi) the name and address of the Kanam tenant;

(vii) the nature of the charitable or religious functions that are attended to by the institution;

(viii) the reasons for declaring the institution as a religious or charitable institution of a public nature.

(3) The Collector shall, on receipt of an application under sub-rule (2) publish a notice in the Gazette inviting objections, if any, to be filed within two months of its publication, from persons interested against deciding that the institution is a religious or charitable institution of a public nature. The notice shall also be published at the Taluk Offices of the Districts wherefrom jenmikaram was due to the institution and served on the applicant in the manner prescribed for service of summons in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.

(4) On the expiry of the period specified in sub-rule (3), the Collector shall conduct such enquiries into the objections, if any, and take such evidence, oral and documentary as may be necessary, in the manner prescribed under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 for the hearing and disposal of suits relating to immovable property.

(5) The Collector shall forward the application together with the records of enquiry to the Government with his specific recommendation. The Government shall, after considering the objections, if any, and the recommendation of the Collector and after making such further enquiry as they deem necessary, decide the question and pass order accordingly.

(6) The order of the Government under sub-rule (5) with the reasons for the decision shall be communicated to the applicant, the Settlement Officer and the Collector of the district concerned.

4. Application for amount on annuity.—(1) Every jenmi entitled to amount or annuity under section 4 shall prefer an application for such amount or annuity to the Settlement Officer having jurisdiction over the area in which the holding in respect of which he was entitled to receive jenmikaram immediately before the appointed day is situate. If there are more than one such Settlement Officer, the application may be presented to any one of them.

(2) The application shall be in Form A and shall be preferred on or before 1-6-1979 and shall bear court fee stamp of the value of Rs. 2 (Rupees Two only):

Provided that in the case of an institution claiming annuity the application shall be presented before the expiry of two months from the date of receipt of the order of the Government under sub-rule (5) of rule 3 and shall be accompanied by the original or a certified copy of the said order.

(3) The Settlement Officer shall serve a notice on every jenmi who has not presented the application on or before the date specified in sub rule (2) to present the application within a period of one month from the date of service of the notice or within such further time as may be allowed by the Settlement Officer for any sufficient cause.

(4) The notice referred to in sub-rule (3) shall be served by delivering a copy thereof to the person to whom it is addressed or to his authorised agent or to some adult male member of his family residing with him who shall be required to sign an acknowledgement of service endorsed on the original notice. If such person refuses to acknowledge service of the notice as aforesaid, or if the person to whom the notice is addressed cannot be found even after diligent search and there is no other person on whom service can be made, the Serving Officer may affix a copy of the notice on the outer door of the house, known to be the last residence of the person to whom the notice is addressed and return the original with an endorsement attested by two respectable persons of the locality stating that he has so affixed a copy and the circumstances under which he did so.

(5) On receipt of the application the Settlement Officer shall cause the details specified therein to be verified with reference to Taluk and Village registers and prepare the draft compensation roll of the jenmi.

(6) If the application is not received within the period specified in the notice or within such further time as may be allowed by the Settlement Officer under sub-rule (3), the Settlement Officer shall prepare the draft roll of the jenmi concerned with reference to the Taluk and Village Registers and to the best of his judgment:

Provided that if any religious or charitable institution fails to present the application as required by these rules and the Settlement Officer feels a doubt as to whether the institution is a religious or charitable institution of a public nature, the Settlement Officer shall refer the matter to the Government, through the District Collector and obtain orders before preparing the draft roll under this sub-rule. The procedure laid down in sub-rules 3 to 5 of rule 3 shall be followed by the Collector while sending report to Government.

5. Draft Roll.—(1) In addition to the particulars specified in clauses (a) to (d) of section 9, the following particulars shall also be specified in the draft compensation roll, namely:—

(a) details of the holding such as Survey Number and Sub-division Number if any;

(b) extent;

(c) Village and Taluk in which it is to situated.

(2) The draft roll shall be in Forms B and B1.

6. Manner of publication of notice referred to in clause (a) of section 10.—The notice referred to in clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 10 shall be published in the Gazette and also in the Taluk Offices within the jurisdiction of the Settlement Officer wherefrom jenmikaram was payable to the jenmi and in the office of the Settlement Officer.

7. Draft roll to be sent to other Settlement Officers.—Copies of draft roll shall be sent to other Settlement Officers in the State for verifying whether the entries relating to lands within their jurisdiction are correct, and whether there has been any duplicate claim.

8. Objections to the draft roll.—Objections and claims if any, to the draft roll shall be filed within thirty days from the date of publication of the roll or from the date of service of notice under sub section (1) of Section 10, as the case may be.

9. Fees to be paid in respect of memorandum of appeal.—The memorandum of appeal under sub section (2) of section 11 shall bear a court fee stamp of the value of Rs. 10.

10. Preparation of final roll and payment of compensation.—(1) The Settlement Officer shall, after the expiry of the period of appeal under sub-section (2) of section 11, and in a case where an appeal has been preferred, after the receipt of orders of the District Court on such appeal, prepare final roll in Forms C and C1 in respect of every jenmi and forward copies thereof to,—

(i) the Tahsildar, through whom payment is to be made to the jenmi and/or other claimants;

(ii) the Tahsildars through whom recovery of compensation from the various kanam tenants under the jenmi is to be effected;

(iii) the other Settlement Officers of the State; and

(iv) the Accountant General.

(2) The payment of amount to the jenmi or other claimants, if any, shall be made by the Tahsildar on receipt of the final roll.

(3) Where jenmikaram was due to the jenmi from more than one Taluk, payment of amount shall be made by the Tahsildar of one of these taluks as determined by the Settlement Officer. The amount shall be claimed from the Government treasury by presenting a bill in Form D.

11. Date of payment of first instalment of compensation by the Kanam Tenant.—The date of payment of first instalment of compensation payable by the kanam tenant under section 17 shall be either the 15th January or the 15th July which falls immediately after the expiry of one month from the date of service of notice on him of the proceedings referred to in rule 13.

12. Payment of interest on compensation.—The interest on the compensation payable by the kanam tenant under section 17 shall be payable from the appointed day. Along with each instalment, interest up to the date of payment of that instalment has to be calculated,—

(i) in the case of the first instalment, on the whole of the compensation from the appointed day; and

(ii) in the case of any subsequent instalments on the amount outstanding after payment of the previous instalment from the date of payment of that instalment.

13. Issue of proceedings relating to compensation.—The Settlement Officer shall issue proceedings showing the total amount due from each kanam tenant in respect of his holding to the Government under section 16, the number of instalments and amount of each instalment and the date on which the first instalment falls due. Copies of the proceedings shall be communicated to the Tahsildar through whom recovery of the compensation from the kanam tenant is to be effected and served on the kanam tenant.

14. Compensation register to be maintained.—A register of compensation recoverable from each kanam tenant shall be maintained in every Village Office and every Taluk Office in Form E.

15. Annuity register to be maintained.—A register of annuity payable to religious or charitable institutions of a public nature shall be maintained in every Taluk Office in Form 'F'.

16. Payment of amount as interim relief.—An application for the payment of any amount as interim relief under section 6 shall lie to the Settlement Officer to whom an application for the payment of amount or annuity is to be preferred under sub-rule (1) of rule 4 and shall bear court fee stamps of the value of two rupees. The application shall specify the name and address of the jenmi, details of all the holdings in the State in respect of which amount or annuity is payable to the applicant under the Act (such as Taluk, Village, Perpidi numbers, Survey and Sub-Division numbers, if any, etc.), the annual jenmikaram that was being received by the jenmi in respect of each holding and also state whether an application for fixation of amount or annuity has been preferred to the Settlement Officer under sub-rule (1) of rule 4.

17. Inquiry and orders of the Settlement Officer.—On receipt of an application under rule 16, the Settlement Officer shall conduct such enquiries as he may deem necessary and pass orders thereon according to the circumstances of the case.

18. Apportionment of interim relief.—In cases where there are claimants other than the jenmi for the receipt of amount or annuity, the amount of interim relief shall be apportioned among the various claimants in the same proportion in which the amount or annuity is to be apportioned.

19. Amount of interim relief.—The amount of interim relief sanctioned to a jenmi other than a religious or charitable institution of a public nature shall be an amount not exceeding 50% of the amount due to him under sub-section (1) of section 4 and shall be paid in a lump. In the case of a religious or charitable institution of a public nature, the amount of interim relief shall not exceed the annual jenmikaram less collection charges due to it and shall be paid for each completed year after the appointed day until the annuity payable is settled. A separate application shall be necessary for the payment of the amount of interim relief for each year.

20. Manner of payment of interim relief.—The amount of interim relief payable to a jenmi shall be arranged to be disbursed through any Taluk Office from which jenmikaram was payable to such jenmi; provided that such Taluk Office shall be within the jurisdiction of the Settlement Officer who is entrusted or is likely to be entrusted with the work of fixation of the amount or annuity due to such jenmi under section 4. The amount of interim relief shall be claimed from the Government treasury by presenting a bill in Form D.

21. Register of the amount of interim relief.—The Settlement Officer and the Tahsildar through whom payment of the amount of interim relief is arranged shall maintain a register of payment of amount of interim relief in Form 'G'.

22. Amount to be paid in cash.—(1) The amount payable to a jenmi, other than religious or charitable institution of a public nature under sub-section (1) of section 4 shall be paid in cash in lump.

(2) The annuity payable to a religious or charitable institution of a public nature under sub-section (3) of section 4 shall also be paid in cash.

By order of the Governor,

S. PADMAKUMAR,

Special Secretary.
